Ajara Region

Ajara is located on the southeastern coast of the Black Sea and extends to the wooded foothills and mountains of the Lesser Caucasus. Ajara is rich with water resources including rivers, springs, mineral and ground waters. The richness of natural resources is also evident by the great number of protected areas, which make up to 15% of the area: Kintrishi Nature Reserve, Mtirala National Park, Kobuleti Nature Reserve, Machakhela Protected Area.

Ajara is subdivided into five Administrative Divisions (Keda Municipality, Shuakhevi Municipality, Kobuleti Municipality, Khelvachauri Municipality, Khulo Municipality) and Municipality of City Batumi. Most of the territory of Ajara is mountainous, with highest mountains reaching up to 3 000 m. In order to develop the high mountainous settlement, Government provides special law considering tax incentives.

Batumi represents one of the most important Business Locations in the country, where investments are constantly increasing.

More than 2 Billion USD have been invested in Ajara in the last 3 years, most of them belong to foreign investments.
